PAUL MAY RECEDE FROM THE STAND

So Says a Dispatch From a Natal Town.

ENGLISHMEN DO NOT CREDIT THE REPORT.

Say That Kruger Will Maintain a Bold Front For a Time Because of Appearances, Even If He Gives In Ultimately—Dutch Colony At Cape Town Is Restless, and Overt Acts Are Expected—Have No Faith In Premier Schreiner.

London, Sept. 23.—[Special]—A Pietermaritzburg, Natal, dispatch says that it is rumored there that President Kruger is preparing to recede from his position. The report is not credited here, however, as the general sentiment is that Oom Paul will keep up a bold front for a time yet, even if he eventually gives up.

Restless at Cape Town

Cape Town, Sept. 23—[Special]—The Dutch colony here is restless, and it feared that some decisive act of sympathy for the Boers may be taken. Strong British sympathizers regard the attitude of Premier Schreiner with increasing suspicion. He has been assailed for allowing the transportation through the colony, of ammunition for the Orange Free State. In the assembly a complaint was made of the delay in furnishing rifles to the local volunteers. Schreiner said the military commandant was responsible, but Schreiner's opponents accuse him of lacking in fidelity to the British interests.

Rhodes' Sensational Speech.

Cape Town, Sept. 23.—[Special]—In the house of the assembly last night, Cecil Rhodes made a speech declaring that several members of the assembly had accepted money from the Transvaal government, and were therefore practically guilty of treason. Others of the assembly, he said, lived on offal and were political scavengers. These sensational utterances caused some uproar, but a majority of the members listened in sullen silence.

Germans Seek Adventures

Berlin, Sept. 23.—[Special]—A large number of former German officers have gone to the Transvaal in search of military adventures.

London, Sept. 23.—Interest in regard to Transvaal matters Friday centered in Downing street, where the British cabinet council was in progress, and in Bloemfontein, where there was a secret session of the volksraad definitely settling the attitude of the Orange Free State toward the Boers and the British government. President Steyn's significant reply to Sir Alfred Milner leads to the supposition that the Orange Free State will declare itself prepared to throw in its lot with the Boers. This menacing attitude of the other Dutch republic, it is thought in best-informed quarters, materially increases the gravity of the situation.

A distinguished war-office official, however, said: "From a military point of view it will not be altogether unfortunate if the Orange Free State is avowedly hostile. It cannot bring a great number of men into the field, while, on the other hand, that state gives readier access to Pretoria. Politically speaking, also, it simplifies matters extremely, as it gives us the opportunity of settling once for all the question of British supremacy in South Africa."

In regard to the cabinet council, which aroused the keenest public interest, while at the present moment it is impossible to describe with absolute certainty the details of the deliberations, it is certain that no very decisive action was determined on. Lord Salisbury's policy, which now prevails, is to gain time, in the first place to allow every opportunity to the Boers to come to terms, and in the second place to permit the movement of troops to continue without sensational development. The net result, therefore, of the discussion was to frame an answer to the last Boer dispatch, couched in temperate but firm language, defining anew the British position toward the Boer claim of absolute independence, but falling short of any expressions liable to be construed as an ultimatum.

Meanwhile no fresh instructions were issued to the war office, which will merely continue to push forward the preparations already decided on. It is clearly the government's intention to wait for the first hostile movement on the part of the Boers, the official idea being that the young Boer party will be betrayed into some movement on the frontier which will afford the British an opportunity to declare that the war was not begun by them, but was forced on them by the Boers.

FIRM STAND OF THE VOLKSRAAD.

Unanimous Decision to Assist the Transvaal in Case of War.

Cape Town, Sept. 23.—The volksraad of the Orange Free State, meeting at Bloemfontein, the capital, Friday gave its unanimous decision to assist the Transvaal in case of a war with Great Britain. There are several British members of the volksraad, and these voted in harmony with their Dutch associates.

President Kruger personally is still willing to concede the five years' franchise to uitlanders, but his present course is forced on him by the volksraad of the South African republic owing to the fact that Great Britain has brought forward fresh demands.

Have Sailed for the Cape.

Bombay, Sept. 23.—The remainder of the Nineteenth hussars and the cavalry staff have sailed for the Cape. The cost of transporting the Indian contingent to South Africa is estimated at £400,000.

Kruger Hopes for Peace.

Cape Town, Sept. 23.—Writing to an intimate friend here, President Kruger says: "Things are serious and will become graver, but a peaceful settlement will be attained."

ORGANIZED FIGHT ON TAMMANY HALL

NEW YORK DEMOCRATS DECLARE WAR.

Will Form An Independent Organization To Make It Hot For Croker And His Justly Celebrated Tiger—Movement Said to Have Received Little Encouragement.

New York, Sept. 23—[Special]—An organized revolt against Tammany and Crokerism is to be made. A score of democrats who are opposed to Croker and the methods of Tammany Hall, met at a hotel here last night for the purpose of forming an independent organization. It is stated that the leaders in the movement have received very little encouragement. However, a public announcement of a new organization will be made soon.

FROM FAMILY OF SOLDIERS

Young Man Who Enlisted at Beloit Is "Bred About Right."

It was very natural that young James Quinn, who recently left Beloit for St. Paul to join the Forty-fifth regiment U. S. Vols., should be a soldier, says the Beloit Free Press. His father, James Quinn, Sr., was one of the earliest to enlist in the war of the rebellion; his grandfather was a soldier of the war 1812; and his great grandfather "fit" in the war for independence. Young James comes of a soldier stock, and when he returns from the Philippines may his arm be decorated with chevrons or his shoulders with straps to honor his long line of patriotic ancestry.

PLUMBERS SUE FOR PAY

McVicar Bros. Seek to Recover Money for Work Done

Municipal Judge Fifield has been busy all day listening to the civil suit of McVicar Bros. vs. Mrs. Blodgett. The action is a suit to collect $42.00 for repairing a steam heating plant in the J. B. Doe residence on Park Place. Walter Brittian lived in the house at the time and it is claimed that he ordered the repairs made without the knowledge of Mr. Blodgett, who refused to pay for them on those grounds. Attorney J. B. Doe of Milwaukee, represents the defendant, while F. C. Burpee represents McVicar Bros.

FOUR SCORE AND THREE YEARS

Ex-Senator Sawyer of Wisconsin Congratulated on His Birthday.

Oshkosh, Wis., Sept. 23.—Congratulations extended personally and by letter and telegraph were showered on ex-Senator Sawyer Friday on the occasion of the celebration of his 83d birthday. The venerable statesman, despite the fact that he has passed the fourscore milestone of life's journey, enjoys mental and physical vigor, and still manages to put in a good portion of each day at his office in the management of his affairs.

Foraker Favors the Trusts.

Hamilton, Ohio, Sept. 23.—Senator J. B. Foraker delivered an address Friday at the emancipation celebration on the Butler county fair grounds. Among the features of his address were strong declarations for expansion and an exhaustive argument on trusts. He said in part: "By consolidation of capital, plants and management, expenses of various kinds are eliminated and it is made possible to continue the employment of our capital and the employment of our labor and the development of our resources and the multiplication of our wealth; by a resort to the economics that follow consolidation we are enabled to meet the prices of England, Germany and the older countries of Europe."

To Protect Americans.

Washington, Sept. 23.—The government is not concerned over the possibility, in the event of war between Great Britain and the south African republic, that the Transvaal will impress American citizens into the military service in accordance with the provisions of the new constitution of that country. Such a proceeding on the part of the Boers, it is asserted, would meet with a prompt response from the United States, which would be ready to go beyond a mere protest in protecting the rights of American citizens.

THE FILIPINOS FAIL TO KEEP PROMISES

AMERICAN OFFICERS WERE NOT SET AT LIBERTY.

Neither Did the Envoy Call On General Otis—Aguinaldo's Men Ignore the Agreement Made At Their Own Suggestion—No News From Subig Bay.

Manila, Sept. 23—[Special]—Nothing has been heard from the rebel officers who conferred with Gen. McArthur recently, relative to allowing a Filipino officer to bring Lieut. Gilmore and his fellow prisoners through the American lines, and also to permit a Filipino officer to go to Manila to confer with Gen. Otis.

The Filipinos have failed to make good their promise to surrender the American prisoners, and have not sent the officer to meet Gen. Otis.

Nothing has been heard from the naval expedition to Subig Bay.

New Army Plan for Philippines.

Washington, Sept. 23.—A plan is under consideration at the war department to create an army division of the Philippines and divide the division into departments on a basis similar to that in Cuba. The idea is to create four departments in the Philippines, at least three of them to be commanded by major-generals. The plan is to give each department command of all the troops that can be successfully operated and also insure sufficient garrisons for all points taken. Protection to the peaceable tribes is one of the chief objects sought, as representations made to the war department indicate that many of the inhabitants do not want to fight, and if unmolested and relieved from fear of attack by the rebels, will assist in supporting the authority of the United States and make it impossible for the followers of Aguinaldo to subsist.

Otis Must Reverse His Order.

Washington, Sept. 23.—Gen. Otis will be ordered to reverse his position in regard to the admission of Chinese into the Philippines. The cabinet has decided that Gen. Otis had no more authority to enforce the exclusion laws in the Philippines than he had to apply the tariff laws of this country to those islands. He will be ordered to admit the Chinese without restrictions, but, in order to let him down easily, he will first be notified of his mistake and then given a chance to modify the order apparently on his own responsibility. He acted in this matter without consulting the government here.

FISH ARE SALTED AT BELOIT

Accident at Belding's Warehouse Spoiled Kline's Banquet.

The Beloit Free Press says: "Some few days ago a portion of the warehouse of C. H. Belding at Janesville, fell into the river, tumbling among other things a large number of barrels of salt into the river. In fishing the articles out of the river it has been dissolved, not a vestige of the salt remaining in the barrels and bags. To this accident can undoubtedly be ascribed the misfortune of John Kline a night or two ago. He had cooked up in his usual superior manner a fine lot of fine black bass for a select party of our fish epicures, but when ready to be eaten they were found to be altogether too salty for consumption even by the gourmands assembled. John was astounded, and when he recovered from the shock his only explanation was that some one had played a trick on him by emptying the salt bag on the fish when they were frying. Both John and those who have since been asking him when he was going to "fry some rusty mackerel can undoubtedly find the true solution of the freshwater salt fish in the Janesville accident. In fact, most everything that afflicts Beloit people can be traced to Janesville."

Yaqui Ravages Continue.

El Paso, Texas, Sept. 23.—The Yaqui Indians continue their depredations in Sonora, Mexico. The Americans have begun to suffer at the hands of the savages, and if reports be true seven miners from New York have been recently murdered in the Sohuaripa district, and many other prospectors have been driven out, robbed of everything they possessed and their mines wrecked.

Crisis In Spanish Affairs.

Madrid, Sept. 23.—At the cabinet meeting next Monday it is probable that a crisis will arise over the question of a reduction of expense in the war department. If Gen. Polavieja shall resign the war portfolio, it is expected that Gen. Sarez Vales, also a reactionist, will assume the vacant place in the cabinet.

Carterville Marshal in Jail.

Marion, Ill., Sept. 23.—Three more prisoners held for participation in the Carterville riot of last Sunday were locked up in jail in this city Friday. They are City Marshal George Walker, A. O. Glidewell and Robert Winning. The last was arrested upon complaint of the attorney-general.

Montejo to Be Liberated.

Madrid, Sept. 23.—The official decree of the court-martial which has been investigating the cause of the loss of the Spanish fleet at Manila, places Admiral Montejo on the retired list. He will probably be admonished and liberated.

GOVERNOR SCOFIELD AT CHIPPEWA FALLS

SPEAKS IN A CROWD AT THE COUNTY FAIR.

Mayor Cunningham, Introduces Him, Saying That He Is "The Best Governor That Wisconsin Ever Had—Beloit Football Eleven Defeats Whitewater—Other State News.

Chippewa Falls, Sept. 23.—Mayor Cunningham, in introducing Gov. Scofield to the people at the fair yesterday, paid the chief executive a high compliment, saying:

"I have watched the course of Gov. Scofield for nearly four years and I consider him the best governor Wisconsin ever had."

The governor's speech did not deal with politics at all, saying, in part:

"The farmers, markets and the soil of Wisconsin seem this year to have formed a very strong combination. I do not know that it can be called a trust but under any name, it is a happy and successful combination. They are controlling prices and everybody who has anything to sell in the agricultural line from labor to wheat, can find a ready market and good price. Whatever damage the other trusts may be working elsewhere in the country, just at present, we are not in a mood to allow them to bother us.

"If ever there was a year when people could afford to take things as they come, and turn a deaf ear to the grumbler and agitator, this is the one. The calamity howler is still with us notwithstanding the good times, and we are warned that our sacred institutions are in danger and that the country is generally going to destruction. But let us not worry too much over this. There is more than enough in the present conditions to inspire this generation with bondless faith. Our success as a country, in solving great problems and meeting adverse conditions warrants us in believing that we will overcome all the troubles that may meet us in the future."

BELOIT DEFEATS WHITEWATER

Won the First Game of the Season At Elkhorn.

Elkhorn, Wis., Sept. 22—Beloit college played the first game of football of this season yesterday meeting the Whitewater Normal eleven on the Walworth County Fair ground in the presence of 10,000 people. The game ended in a score of 16 to 0 in favor of Beloit, and considering the condition of the grounds the game was a great contest. It cannot be said, however, that Beloit men are particularly elated over the result, for they do not regard the Normals as any such opponents as they will meet later in the season. Whitewater shows surprising form back of the line, and Baker, right end, did great playing. The touchdowns were all in the first half, McRea scoring once and Buell twice, Merrill kicking goal. The first touchdown was in a minute and three-quarters. The second half was hot from start to finish. Capt. Hollenbeck was completely knocked out and Meyers took his place as left tackle, doing remarkably clever work. The playing of Mosely was watched by the Beloit crowd with great interest and was in every way satisfactory. The lineup was as follows:

BELOIT.		WHITEWATER.
N. Hollenbeck capt.	left tackle	Riedelbach
S. Hollenbeck	left guard	Groen
Mosely	center	Groom
Ensign	right guard	Miller
Buell	right tackle	Norris
Bunge	right end	Baker
Meadows	left halfback	Hutton
Slatter	right halfback	Everson
Allen	quarterback	Hahn
Merrill	fullback	Haummerson

Eau Claire People Still Excited Over Yesterday's Bloody Duel With Army Swords.

ROOSEVELT OPENS OHIO CAMPAIGN

Governor Strikes the Keynote At Akron Today.

BUCKEYE FIGHT TERMED "A NATIONAL CONTEST."

Platform Sets Forth All the Issues, Clearly, That Will Come Up In the Battle For the Presidency—Proposed Cure For Trust Evil Would Be Worse Than the Combinations Themselves—Philippine Question Is Touched Upon.

Akron, Sept. 23—[Special]—The Ohio campaign was practically opened today by a speech by Gov. Theodore Roosevelt here. He said Ohio's contest this year was a national contest, on account of the stress laid on national issues by the state democratic platform. The position taken herein by the Ohio democrats—standing in reality for national democracy on trusts, expansion and free silver—was one destructive of national prosperity at home and of national honor abroad, he said.

"Men are now fighting," he continued "hoping to avoid much discussion of the silver question, trusting thereby to be enabled to say to believers in free silver that they are heartily in favor of it, and yet fool men who stand for sound finance by explaining to them that this question is really relegated to the rear.

Remedy Worse Than Disease.

"Our opponents denounce trusts, but they propose no remedy that would not make the situation ten times worse than it is now. They propose two measures for relief: 'Change tariff and coin silver at a rate of 16 to 1.' They know well that the Standard Oil and Sugar Trusts, two of the greatest in the country, are entirely unaffected by the tariff."

The speaker then depicted hard times, and the consequent miseries of six years ago, due, he claimed, to tariff tinkering. He also drew a picture of the disasters he said would ensue if free coinage were adopted. On expansion, he said:

"If we have no moral right in the Philippines, then we have no moral right to interfere on an Indian reservation. People tell you the Filipinos are fighting for independence. This was exactly what the copperheads of '61 said of the confederates."

An excess for the day of $922,804 turned the scale and set a new mark for this year.

BULL FIGHTING AS SEEN IN FRANCE

SICKENING SPECTACLE AT BOULOGNE.

Gazette Correspondent Has His Curiosity More Than Satisfied—Brutal Exhibition Which Resulted In the Killing of Blindfolded Horses—Audience Numbered Several Thousand.

Glasgow, Sept. 11—Prior to my departure from France I made an excursion trip to the city of Boulogne and there witnessed a spectacle that I will admit is not to one's credit for seeing. It was a thrilling Spanish bull fight given on French soil. For the past five weeks there has been much doubt in my mind as to whether or not my membership in the Janesville Y. M. C. A. would hold good in case Secretary Kline was once informed that one of his boys occupied a front seat at such a brutal exhibition, but now, by making a full confession, I hope to be forgiven. The spectacle was so full of interest and so brutal that I could not help but write about all I witnessed and heard on that sunny August afternoon. For five weeks prior to the fight the affair was widely advertised in Paris and the surrounding country. Cheap excursion rates were given and for three dollars I made the round trip which covered a total of about four hundred miles. At 6 o'clock in the morning I left Paris and at noon I was in the city of Boulogne which to me looked like a place about twice the size of Janesville. The town was already filled with people and each incoming train and boat brought hundreds of excursionists whose only object was to see the fight. The business houses and many of the private homes were gaily decorated for the occasion. At one o'clock the crowd commenced to move towards the place of amusement which is known as the Place de Capecure Ring.

Vehicles of all kinds were used as means of transportation for the reason that the slow going horse street cars were unable to accommodate the people. On my arrival at the Place de Capecure Ring, I found an immense crowd in front of the one ticket office and for half an hour I stood in line before I could purchase my ticket. Numerous French policemen were on the scene to keep order. For two dollars I was enabled to secure an excellent seat three rows from the front and within ten feet of where the bulls entered the arena.

The building was constructed of wood in the shape of a huge circle with no roofing except where were constructed the seats. Its seating capacity was estimated at ten thousand and not a vacant seat was to be seen. The arena was about seventy-five feet north and south and about the same distance east and west. The people that were seated about me were well worth studying. The greater portion were Frenchmen who wore bright colored neckties for the occasion. Women were numerous and not a few of them smoked cigarettes throughout the entire "entertainment." A band, seated in the reserved seat section, played Spanish airs until 2 o'clock arrived. Then the audience yelled and whistled for the show to commence.

At 2:15 o'clock all was quiet; a man entered the center of the ring with cowboy hat in hand and attired in a suit that consisted of short plush coat and breeches gayly decorated with brass buttons. He addressed the audience in French, giving an outline of the program and warning all that order must be kept at all times. The bandmaster was then warned that no more music was needed, and in less than a minute the show was on.

From a small entrance near the ring side, there first entered four bull fighters afoot, and four who rode good sized ponies, each one of which was blindfolded. These animals looked as though they were half starved and barely able to carry their riders about the ring. These bull fighters, or matadors as they are called in Spain, were gorgeously attired in plush suits, with long, flowing robes, and as they circles about the ring they bowed to the crowd, who applauded every time they smiled. Then they took up their places in the center of the ring, and the people were half blind with the fever of excitement.

At a given signal the first of six bulls thundered into the ring, coming from a small building separated from the ring side by a strong wooden door, which was instantly closed. This bull was a two year old and was as black as coal. He had a grand pair of horns that were brightly polished for the occasion. As he entered the arena he came to a sudden halt, and then quicker than a flash made for the fighters charging the nearest who swung aside without much trouble. Then all the fighters on foot swung their bright red colored cloths in front of the now enraged animal every time he would make a rush at the nearest man. Each time the bull would follow the moving flap of the cloth and pay little attention to the man. Two lances that had been thrust into his neck before he entered the ring were now causing him intense pain. The fighters then commenced using their spears and as the bull would take after one of them another would come up from behind and lance the enraged brute. Then matters commenced to get real interesting and the bull charged in the most furious manner and the fighters were kept busy jumping the barriers to places of safety instead of harassing with their red cloaks. The animal had been enraged further by several open thrusts, and in desperation followed up one of the horsemen, refusing to have its attention distracted by the fighters.

The horse attempted to jump the barrier, but failed, and the bull catching it beneath, disemboweled it.

The brute then made for another horseman which resulted in both horse and rider rolling over and over. The bull rushed at the prostrate man with its head down, but missed the mark, its fore feet falling on the man's chest. It then turned its attention to the trembling horse which it gored badly in the neck so that it had to be taken from the ring and killed.

After further tormenting the bull with their darts, the torcadors came in to finish their ghastly work. This man endeavored to make the now half dead animal charge by cruelly picking it on the nose and head with the point of his sword, but the bull had not the strength left. Finally it dropped to its knees and was dispatched with a dagger amid considerable hooting and hissing from the audience.

The horrible sight evidently unerved many of the audience, who commenced to leave. Just what became of the other five bulls I am not able to tell as I was among those who left. I had all the bull fighting that I wanted and my curiosity was more than satisfied.

To partake of supper that evening or even breakfast the next morning was simply out of the question.

In Boulogne the general opinion is that these bull fights are the reverse of popular, and they are scarcely likely to continue another season.

"THE HIGH ROLLERS" ALL RIGHT

Very Pleasing Performance At the Myers Grand Last Evening.

"The High Rollers" rolled to the largest and most appreciative audience of the season last night at the Myers' Grand. The company is well named and presented a strictly up-to-date, clever performance, and no lover of extravaganza should miss the opportunity of seeing them this evening. The performance is divided into three parts the first an operatic satire "The Paris Exposition;" the second an olio of vaudeville artists, and the third a burlesque "The Great Rubie," a take-off on Daly's Broadway success. Every part in the performance was strong, the olio being one of the finest ever seen in the city. It is impossible to mention all who deserve praise but Jacob Crawford, James Cooper, J. C. Reynolds, John Weber and George Yeoman each won high honors, while among the ladies, the two Washburn Sisters, Maud Renard, Abbie Carlton, Nettie Burton, Kittie Raymond and Bertha Douglas charmed the audience. The chorus was very good. The singing throughout the performance was all that could be desired and the dancing was some of the best ever seen here.

It is seldom that a better staged or costumed performance is seen in the city. Everything was complete from the simplest costume to the electrical apparatus which the company owns for throwing the best possible lights on the pictures.

ARE YOU ON THE LIST?

Have Your Dollar Ready For a Year's Subscription to "National Magazine."

Every public spirited citizen of Janesville should hand a dollar to the representative of "The National Magazine" at once. It is without doubt the one of most popular, progressive and aggressive American periodicals published with a tremenduous circulation.

A handsome illustrated article on Janesville will appear in "The National Magazine" if 500 subscribers are secured in Janesville.

These articles will be published later in a book entitled "Progressive American Cities" and Janesville is one of six cities selected in Wisconsin. Oshkosh, Appleton, Wausau, Marinette and Green Bay have already responded, and Janesville as a center of culture, enterprise and industry, should not be passed.

"The National Magazine" was formerly the "Bostonian" and circulates widely throughout New England among people with money to invest and this publication has done more to interest the people of the east in reliable and progressive towns than any other medium.

Now do not delay in sending in your dollar and you will never have occasion to regret it.

Band in Good Shape

Oscar W. Bucklin told of the work of the Y. M. C. A band saying that at the beginning of the year $120 was owed. Of this $20 had been paid, and the $100 balance had been assumed by the members as individuals. The work of the year was sketched, showing that the band had been able to purchase new uniforms and instruments. Incorporation under the state laws is now discussed.

F. F. Lewis voiced the thanks of the band for the assistance rendered by the association and the people.

The nominating committee composed of A. E. Matheson, A. F. Hall and James Sherer recommended the election of the officers above named and the secretary was instructed to cast the ballot for them.

Remarks Are Made

Remarks followed by State Secretary F. E. Anderson of Milwaukee, Supt. D. D. Mayne, Dr. H. A. Palmer, D. H. Felch of Spokane, Washington, and H. J. Cunningham.

F. F. Lewis thought the building ought to be kept open Sunday afternoons for the benefit of the great number of young men and moved that the board of directors canvass the matter and devise some plan to make the building more attractive on Sunday afternoons.

H. J. Cunningham told of the organization of the ball team and the work that had been done and the meeting adjourned.

BELOIT MINISTER DIVORCED

The Rev. Thomas Barr Legally Separated From His Wife.

A Beloit dispatch to last evenings's Milwaukee Wisconsin says: "Great surprise was occasioned here by the news of the divorce of Rev. Thomas E. Barr from his wife, Mrs. Bertha Barr of Kalamazoo. The action was commenced by Mrs. Barr, who charged that her husband deserted her. The granting of the divorce had been kept secret for two months, the news only leaking out yesterday. Mr. Barr was a successful preacher here for several years. He had been the pastor of the First Presbyterian and First Congregational churches at Kalamazoo and was highly thought of. Mrs. Barr is at Oshkosh with four small children. The amount of alimony was privately arranged."

War Revenue Law a Success.

Washington, Sept. 23.—The treasury statement Friday shows that the government has received $669,051 more than it has spent since July 1, when the fiscal year began. The only item during that time that is not to be classed among the routine sources of income is that of about $2,000,000 in sale of the New York custom-house. This good showing of the government finances is attributed largely to the enormous receipts on account of the war-revenue law.

May Withdraw from Order.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Sept. 23.—Sunday afternoon representatives of all the councils of the Catholic Benevolent Legion of Indiana will meet here to discuss the proposition to withdraw from the national council and form a new organization. The reason ascribed is that deaths in other states far exceed the percentage of deaths in Indiana. It is an insurance order and one local Catholic association has flourished here for years.

Row in French Cabinet.

Paris, Sept. 23.—It is rumored in Paris that the minister of war, the Marquis de Gallifet, and Premier Waldeck-Rousseau have had so serious a difference of opinion over questions of governmental policy that the premier asked Gallifet to resign. Minister Gallifet is said to have replied: "We will all go together before the chamber of deputies, but the present cabinet will not resign without me."

build the house around the bath room.

SO SOME PEOPLE say. The modern idea in building is to have the bath room and plumbing convenient and nice, if you are obliged to cut off on something else.

That Double System of Plumbing.....

we are putting in many houses, is a convenience well worth looking into. If can be placed in any house. With it you have soft water for the bath and lavatory purposes and with the turning of a valve you can run city water through the pipes. A motor elevates the soft water automatically. We would be pleased to explain it more fully to you.

ACTRESS COMMITS MURDER

Leading Lady of "Mr. Plaster of Paris" Kills Stage Manager

Julia Morrison, leading lady of the "Mr. Plaster of Paris" farce comedy company, which recently appeared at the Myers Grand, shot and killed Frank Leidon, stage manager and leading man of the company, on the stage of the City opera house at Chattanooga, Tenn., just before the curtain rose for the performance to begin. Three shots were fired at close range, all taking effect in Leidon's head. He sank to the floor and was dead in a few minutes. The woman was arrested and taken to the city jail. Trouble had existed between Leidon and Miss Morrison and she slapped him. They quarrelled over the woman's alleged bad acting, Leidon accusing her of being an amateur. The woman claims that Leidon repeatedly insulted her and that she shot him in self defense. The verdict of the coroner's jury was to the effect that the murder was premeditated and wholly unjustifiable.

SAY FRANK E. RACE IS DYING

Former Resident of Beloit Who Went West to Tacoma, Wash.

Beloit, Wis., Sept. 23—William Hamlin yesterday received word that Frank E. Race, formerly of this city, is at the point of death in Tacoma, Wash. Mr. Race was ten years ago a very well known resident of Beloit. He was alderman from the Third ward for many years, county superintendent from that ward and always active in the affairs of the republican party in county and local matters. He went to Tacoma because of declining health. He is a member of several fraternal orders. His family consists of a wife and four children.

"Let me send you a box of Ivory Soap. We know it is pure, and will not injure anything. Many of our customers will not have any other for their laundry work."

The box was sent, and one more family uses no other. Try it for one week in your laundry, and ask your laundress what she thinks of it.

TO WELCOME IOWA TROOPS.

Regiment from the Philippines Will Be Given an Elaborate Reception.

Des Moines, Iowa, Sept. 23.—A cablegram received by Gov. Shaw announces that the soldiers of the Fifty-first Iowa volunteers sailed from Manila on Thursday afternoon, according to plans.

It is estimated that they will be twenty-four days on the way if they do not stop at Honolulu. This will bring them to Iowa in time for the November state election, unless an unexpectedly long time is taken to muster out the troops at San Francisco.

Since the news of the sailing of the transport Senator has arrived, the mothers of the Iowa soldiers in this city have begun active preparations to give the boys a glorious welcome home. There will be parades, receptions, banquets, speeches by the governor, and official and other occasions, the whole celebration occupying several days.

The boys will be guests of honor at a reception to the whole of Iowa at the capitol building on the day after they reach here. Delegations of G. A. R. men will also be in the line.

The plan to bring all the Iowa boys back to Des Moines at the expense of the state immediately after their discharge is assured of success and practically completed.

THE BASEBALL REPORT.

Results of Games Played Yesterday in the National League.

Chicago had to put up with only one victory from the two games played with Boston yesterday. The second game was unsatisfactory. Boston made three runs in the gloom of the eighth inning, and the game was terminated with Selee's team one run ahead. Caucus for Currency Bill.

Washington, Sept. 23.—A republican member of the next house of representatives said today that it was the purpose of Col. Henderson of Iowa, who will be the next speaker, to submit the new financial bill drafted by a special committee of republicans to a republican caucus soon after the house is organized, and have it considered in caucus before reference to any committee. By this plan it is hoped to avoid any wrangle over the proper reference of the bill to committee and to secure speedy action on it in the house.

No Provision for Chaplains.

Washington, Sept. 23.—Secretary Root's attention having been drawn to the fact that no chaplains are being commissioned with the volunteer regiments, he has written a letter to the editor of a religious publication, who was disposed to complain, showing that congress made no provision for such chaplains. Therefore the volunteer regiments are being sent out to the Philippines with

THIS DAY IN HISTORY.

63 B. C.—Octavius Caesar, later the Emperor Augustus, born at Aricia.
1604—Queen Mary, wife of and joint monarch with William III, died.
1745—John Sevier, pioneer and soldier, hero of Kings Mountain, etc., born in Rockingham county, Va.; died 1815. Isaac Hayne, Revolutionary patriot, born in the Beaufort district, South Carolina; executed 1781.
1770—The wonderful naval battle of Flamborough Head, coast of Gloucestershire; Paul Jones won a signal victory.
1780—The spy Andre arrested near New York.
1791—Birth of Karl Theodor Korner, German poet of liberty; killed in fighting the French, 1813.
1820—Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry died in Port Spain, isle of Trinidad; born 1785.
1869—Black Friday.
1890—The city of Colon, isthmus of Panama, destroyed by fire.
1894—General Willard Slocum, a Union veteran, died at Ashland, O.; born 1820.
1808—Colonel Richard Malcom Johnson, the southern novelist, died in Baltimore; born 1823.

The article that The National Magazine proposes to publish, setting forth the advantages of Janesville, would certainly be of value. Joe M. Chapple, the editor of "The National," was formerly editor of The Ashland Daily Press, and is a writer of prominence. The National Magazine circulates extensively in the east—it is published in Boston—and its western patronage is growing rapidly. Eastern people are the ones we want to reach, so it would appear that the plan would result in much benefit to Janesville.

The democratic press of Wisconsin has a good deal to say about the republican candidates for governor, but remains painfully silent as to democratic candidates. The reason is apparent, however, for men who want to be governer, want to be governor. They don't want to be "just candidates." And the only way they can become governor is to get the republican nomination. The democrats, as well as the republicans, realize this fact. Hence, there are no democratic candidates.

The war department has issued a general order in regard to the examination of officers of the volunteer army, an important provision of which is that vacancies of second lieutenants are to be filled by promotion from the ranks of the regiments in which they occur. This ruling is a just one, and affords enlisted men an opportunity to "win their spurs."

The "anti-imperialist convention" to be held in Chicago will doubtless be like that other famous convention—the one that was made up of "long haired men and short haired women." The anti-imperialists are wasting a lot of breath these days. There is about as much danger of imperialism as there is of another flood.

The Gazette was in error when it stated that the present postoffice marked the center of the city. The original lot map places the center at the "old postoffice"—the building now occupied by N. B. Robinson. Thus the "King lot" is but a block and a quarter from the center of the city.

There need be no anxiety at all, dear Col. Democrat, none at all. The man of the hour has already appeared, as has been stated in these columns—the Hon. Clinton Babbitt, of Rock county, Wisconsin.

CAN'T KEEP IT UP

Can't Deceive Janesville People Very Long—They Learn Quickly.

It is sometimes an easy matter to fool the public, but you can't keep it up very long. They are sure to find you out; and every time a man is fooled another skeptic is made. We are naturally skeptical when reading a published statement given by some stranger residing in a far-away place, but the circumstances are entirely different when home endorsement is presented. The testimony of local citizens renders deceit impossible. It is so easy for you to investigate. Read this case:

Mr. Samuel Griffin, of 203 Locust St. journeyman carpenter, says: "I had a severe attack of la grippe and as a result weakness of the kidneys set in. The secretions from those organs were greatly disordered, annoyed me much at night and I seemed to have limited control of them. After finishing the treatment my kidneys were so strengthened that I could sleep all night without being disturbed. I am better now than I have been for years, and give all credit to Doan's Kidney Pills for bringing about this result."

Ideal Milk Stands All Tests

The point brought up at a "Council" meeting some little time since, regarding the inspection of city milk, would, if enforced, find Ideal Aerated Jersey Milk ready for any test. It is cooled and bottled in the most approved manner, bottles are scalded and thoroughly rinsed and each bottle fitted with clean, new, wood pulp corks. It will keep well and is perfectly pure. When cream forms on milk and becomes stringy it is impure. Ideal Milk forms perfect cream.

J. F. SWEENEY NAMED AS THE PRESIDENT

JANESVILLE MAN AT HEAD OF STATE ASSOCIATION.

Delegates to the Meeting of Hotel Men Honor the Proprietor of "The Grand" —Reports of the President and Secretary—An Elaborate Menu Served Last Evening.

President—J. F. Sweeney, Janesville.

Vice President—C. L. Smith, Eau Claire.

Secretary and Treasurer—E. T. Dorman, Milwaukee.

The session of the Wisconsin State Hotel Mens' association closed with the business meeting at the Grand Hotel last evening, at which the above officers were elected.

After attending the performance at the Myers Grand, the association sat down to the annual banquet at the Grand Hotel. An elaborate menu was served, music was rendered by Smith's orchestra, vocal solos by George Hatch being a feature. Thirty-four plates had been placed. The menu was as dainty as it was varied, and much praise was therefore elicited.

The speakers were Mayor Victor P. Richardson; Assemblyman William G. Wheeler; W. H. Englebright of Oshkosh, the retiring president; Frank E. Taylor of Fond du Lac; Henry J. Bohn of The Hotel World; President-Elect J. F. Sweeney; W. P. Smith, West Superior; John Willey of the Hotel Monthly; G. P. Gifford of Oconomowoc, and C. L. Smith of Eau Claire.

The President's Address.

President Englebright, in his annual address at the business meeting, referred to the foundation of the association four years ago, and the work accomplished since that time. He spoke of the numerous advantages the hotel men had by being members of the association, and emphasized the good work done at the last session of the legislature. "The association," he said, "was organized in Milwaukee four years ago, with forty members. Now there are eighty-two of the most prominent hotels in the state represented in the association."

The Secretary's Report

The address was followed with the report of Secretary-Treasurer Edward T. Dorman of Milwaukee. It showed that the association had a membership of eighty-two and that it was in good financial condition. Representatives of hotels in the following cities were present at the meeting: Milwaukee, Darlington, Edgerton, Elkhorn, Janesville, Milton Junction, Racine, Horicon, Kilbourn City, Madison, Portage, Watertown, Dodgeville, Elroy, Lancaster, Mauston, Reedsburg, Wauwatosa, Cedarburg, Eagle, Oconomowoc, Pewaukee, Port Washington, Sheboygan, Waukesha, Fond du Lac, Berlin, Neenah, Oshkosh, Manitowoc, Eau Claire, La Crosse, Appleton, Sparta, Green Bay, Kaukauna, Marshfield, New London, Stevens Point, Sturgeon Bay, Waupaca, Ashland, Marinetto, Peshtigo, Rhinelander, Chippewa Falls, New Richmond and Watertown Junction.

The invitation of W. P. Smith to meet in West Superior was accepted, and after a vote of thanks had been tendered the retiring officers, and several new members elected—among them Adam Holt of this city—the meeting adjourned.

EVIDENCE IS PILING UP

The Famous Bonesetter is Making Many New Converts

The remarkable work of the ramous Bonesetter is drawing so many new cases to him that he has decided to remain in the city over Monday and Tuesday for the benefit of suffering humanity. Yesterday he performed a wonderful operation on the daughter of the Rev. A. Longfield of Lima Center, Wis. The hip joint of the left limb had been dislocated for five years and was put back in place in one minute by the Bonesetter. The young lady was able to go away without the crutch which she brought when she came to consult him. This is but one of the many cases the Bonesetter has had. Every day finds several cures as remarkable as this. His work is individual. Other physicians do not, in fact cannot accomplish the results he obtains. There is no question about what can be done with a deformity on which he operates. He can be found at the Grand Hotel by those wishing to see him.

HOYT'S NOTED PLAY COMING

"A Stranger in New York" Will Be Here October 7.

What promises to be one of the principal comedy events of the current season is the coming of Hoyt's latest comedy success, "A Stranger in New York." This prolific American playwright is so well established that he has an enthusiastic following among the theatre-goers of both continents, as he seems to appreciate exactly what the public wants in the way of amusement. When a Hoyt comedy is announced for presentation, local theatre-goers have learned from past experience that this playwright will offer something new and entertaining. Vocally, the company which comes to the Myers Grand opera house Saturday, October 7, for matinee and evening performance, is said to be the best and strongest that Messrs. Hoyt & McKee have ever sent upon the road, and the occasion is sure to be a most enjoyable one.

Aid Kaiser's Naval Plans.

Berlin, Sept. 23.—The kaiser's plan of building up a German navy that will rival in strength and number the army of the empire bids fair to being realized. The Deutsche Flottenverein, which he has founded, reports that its membership has reached already 60,000. Entire military and civic organizations have joined his vast naval union. Among them are nineteen marine societies, fifty military and fifty-five miscellaneous organizations. Applications for membership from clubs, societies and individuals are pouring in from all over the fatherland.

WEEKLY REVIEW OF TRADE.

No Falling Off Shown in Demand for Products.

HIGH PRICES AND HIGH WAGES

Gain in Purchasing Power More Than Offsets the Increased Price Which Must Be Paid for Manufactures—Failures for the Week.

New York, Sept. 23.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says:

"The reaction in the stock market is not a sign of anything outside that market, but has set many to look for signs for a reaction elsewhere. Such signs have been hard to find. It has been for months a wonder that the demand for products was sustained at rates exceeding those in any other year. But the demand does not appear to abate, and the rise in prices continues. A partial explanation is that scarcely any class of products directly consumed by individuals has advanced as much as the wages and employment of labor. With more hands at work more hours, and at 10 to 15 per cent higher wages, the gain in purchasing power has been quite beyond the rise of 4 per cent in boots and shoes this year, or 8 per cent in leather, 5.2 per cent in woolen goods, or 10.9 per cent in wool, and even beyond the rise of 17 per cent in cotton goods, mainly due to the rise of 13 per cent in cotton. But products used in manufacturing and transporting have advanced much more, because of the enormous increase in volume of business done and in anticipated business for the future. Higher prices cause shrinking demand, other things being equal, but this year other things are not equal.

"Failures for the week have been 154 in the United States, against 173 last year, and 18 in Canada, against 16 last year."

Bradstreet's says:

"Prices as a rule maintain all their former strength, decreases being few and relatively unimportant. In several lines, notably the cereals, cotton, petroleum, iron and steel, the tendency is toward higher levels. Cotton has been notably strong and active. Wool is higher at London and sympathetically strong here, and expectations of a good export trade for fine grades of domestic are entertained. Wheat, including flour, shipments for the week aggregate 4,630,765 bushels, against 4,536,552 bushels last week. Corn exports for the week aggregate 3,794,965 bushels, against 3,282,751 bushels last week."

GERMANY'S EYES ON SAMOA.

America Alone Conceded Right to Coaling Station.

NEGOTIATIONS PROGRESSING.

Cologne Gazette, Official Organ of the Berlin Foreign Office, Emphasizes the Necessity of Abandoning the Old Plan of Government.

Berlin, Sept. 23.—The Cologne Gazette, the organ of the foreign office, reports that the negotiations regarding Samoa are progressing rapidly since the unanimous report of the joint commissioners convinced the three powers that the old arrangement was untenable, and that every attempt to build anew on the same foundations would result in a patchwork which would not further the peaceful development of the islands.

The Gazette emphasizes the necessity of abolishing co-dominion. It prints a London telegram stating that the general belief there is that the foregoing is a final solution of the question, and that the discussion along that line is in prpgress in Washington, London and Berlin.

The Gazette evidently hopes that the German flag will soon be flying exclusively throughout the group, excepting the harbor at Pago-Pago, to which the United States already has a valid claim.

FROM OBSCURITY TO GREATNESS

In Thirty Years the Brand Stove Works Develop Into a Concern of Magnitude.

BRAND'S STOVE WORKS IN 1868.

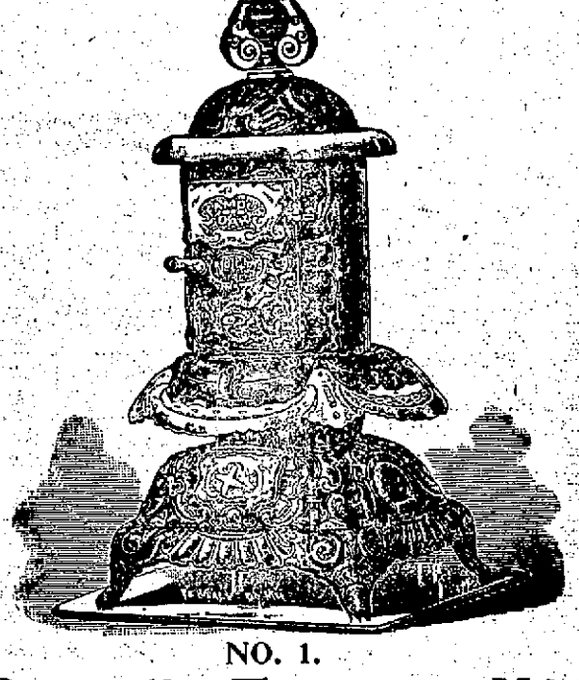

BRAND'S STOVE WORKS AT PRESENT.

There is a rumor being circulated in this city by people who are jealous of the worth of Brand's Famous Stoves, to the effect that the makers of these Stoves are an obscure lot, with but little chance to compete with the other large manufacturers in the country. For the benefit of these people and the public in general, I print these two likenesses of the "Brand" plant—one as it appeared in 1868, when it was founded with but a few employes, and the other as it appears at present. Three hundred and fifty men are now employed and twelve traveling men represent the factory on the road. This immense concern covers a whole square with 9 acres of floor space and is still growing. They sell their product from Ohio to the Pacific coast and from Winnipeg to Florida. Besides the main office at Milwaukee, branch houses are conducted at Chicago and Denver. In conversation with Sebastian Brand, president of the concern, a short time since, he said: "You can warrant every one of our Stoves to the fullest extent." I have sold these Stoves for sixteen years and have never had occasion to return but one Stove to the factory on any account—a record not equaled by many other makes. I meet all competition on Stoves, and besides, give you 10 per cent. off for cash, and Trading Stamps by asking for them.

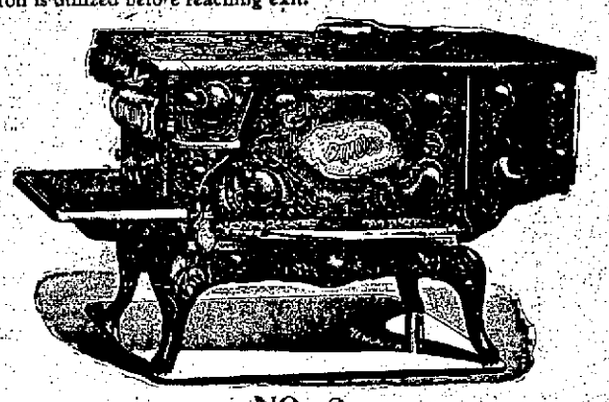

Stove Given Away Free--Brand's Admiral.

This beautiful Base Burner will be given away at the "Brand" sample room, Milwaukee, Oct. 1, this year, to the person who has a Stove made by the Brand Stove Co., Milwaukee, Wis., which has been in constant use the longest time in the state of Wisconsin. Particulars can be had at my store. Stove to be given away is represented by cut No. 4.

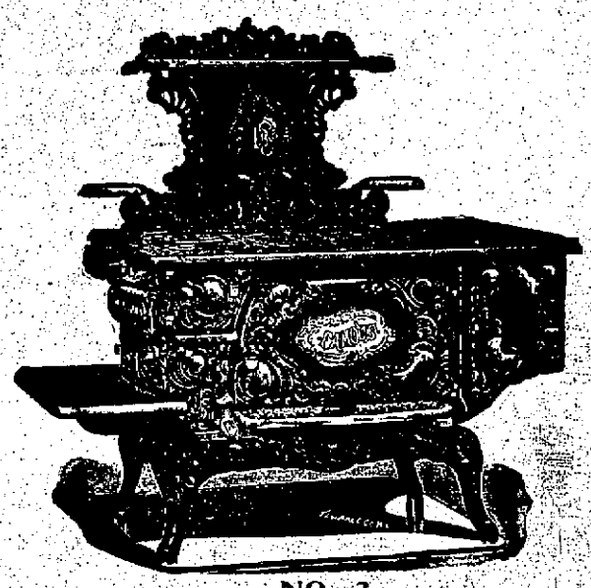

THE ADMIRAL STOVE is original in design, ornamentation and construction; every feature is practical and every detail is of the highest order of workmanship. As a fuel saver it has no equal—it has the greatest amount of direct radiating surface for its size of any Stove on the market. Extra large flues bring the heat down to the lower bottom, then around a circular flue strip, back and up the rear flue, so that all the product of combustion is utilized before reaching exit.
